Hi,

Thank you for letting us come into your lesson today.

It was really positive to see that you have the students engaged in their learning. You have already started using the BTA system, and have demonstrated that you have set high expectations of your group. It was also good to see you had differentiated the worksheet task to challenge/support pupils where necessary.

To improve, I feel that you would benefit from slowing down your explanations very slightly. As you have an accent and speak quite quickly some pupils could struggle to keep up at times!
